

Tears

Clean Bandit (feat. Louisa Johnson)

Verse 1

I tried hard to make you want me but we're not supposed to be
And the truth will always haunt me even though it set me free
And my tears flow like the ocean as they floated in the breeze
They were falling in slow motion and they brought me to my knees

Pre Chorus

You're haunting me, taunting me all in my brain
Turn off the light and now all that remains
Fills me with doubt and I'm shouting your name out loud
Why do you wanna put me through the pain?
I get the feeling I'll never escape
I can't hide away from the shame of you, oh

Chorus

Tears on the ground, tears on my pillow
You won't bring me down
And I'll get over you

These tears will get me through and I'll get over you

I'll, I'll, I'll get over you (x3)

Verse 2

When did you lose your emotion? When did you become so cruel?
And if you wanna cut me open says a thousand words 'bout you
And in time I know you'll leave me, like a distant memory
I know love can be so easy, if I start by loving me, oh

Repeat Pre Chorus

Repeat Chorus (x2)

These tears will get me through
And I'll get over you

Ahhh

I don't need you to call me tonight
I don't need you to see if I'm alright
You left me, so leave me, I'm fine
I'll be here getting on with my life

Repeat Chorus (x2)

And I'll get over you
